Subject : Canadian Military Surplus Armoured Vehicles

Dear Sir,

This is to confirm that Billy Smith operating under the name of Smith Consulting Group is the authorized re-marketing authority responsible to market and sell the Department of National Defence surplus inventory of light armoured vehicles to acceptable foreign Governments on behalf of the Government of Canada.

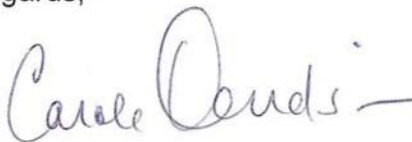

According to that mandate, Smith Consulting Group is authorized to carry out all promotional activities necessary to conclude the sales on behalf of the Canadian government such as marketing, conducting presentations, publicity, receipt of offers in the form of Offers to Purchase (OTP's), organization of inspection visits, provision for technical and commercial information.

In addition, Smith Consulting Group is authorized to negotiate and finalize with a potential buyer all the details of the anticipated government-to-government transaction. Once an offer to purchase has been accepted by the Canadian government, the Purchase Agreement and Bill of Sale document will be finalized and issued to the purchaser and payment will be sought.
